(Orlando, FL.) Area amateur filmmakers now have a new creative challenge: motivate Central Florida citizens to vote.

The League of Women Voters of Orange County (LWVOC) and WKMG, Local 6, are sponsoring the Central Florida Video Challenge to pick the most persuasive 30-second spots promoting “Get Out the Vote” for this year’s fall election cycle.

Best videos entries will be ranked by Local 6 viewers, with the winning picks airing the week prior to the August 26, 2008 Florida primary election.

Filmmakers, regardless of age, are invited to put their spin on such questions as:

Will my vote count?

What happens if I don’t vote?

Why vote at all?

Vote the easy way: vote with the absentee mail-in ballot!

Applications and guidelines are available at www.lwvoc.org (League of Women Voters Orange County).

Deadline for submissions is 5:00 p.m., Friday, July 25, 2008.

LWVOC and Local 6 were honored in June with the 2008 League of Women Voters National Voter Education award for their “Stay Home and Be Counted” campaign: promoting the use of the absentee ballot in seven central Florida Counties. (www.voteanywhere.org)
